About InvigoratEU

InvigoratEU: Invigorating Enlargement and Neighbourhood Policy for a Resilient Europe is a Horizon Project exploring how the EU can strengthen its Enlargement and Neighbourhood Policy to enhance Europe's resilience. The project examines how the EU can reform its enlargement strategy in a changing geopolitical context, respond to the ambitions of other actors in the Eastern Neighbourhood and Western Balkans, and rebuild its foreign policy approach in light of new military and security challenges. It focuses on developing a forward-looking vision for the EU's political agenda and institutional frameworks, aiming to ensure that enlargement and neighbourhood policies effectively support a stronger, more resilient, and united Europe.

About TEPSA

The Trans European Policy Studies Association (TEPSA) was established in 1974 as the first transnational research network in the field of EU affairs. It comprises leading research institutes throughout Europe, with an office in Brussels. Its aim is to provide high-quality research on European integration to stimulate discussion on policies and political options for Europe. This is achieved by the interaction between the European and national institutions as well as the academic and research community. TEPSA is active on a wide range of research topics, focusing on differentiated integration, the EU's external relations, democratic participation and citizens' engagement.
