FAKE NEWS

The EU is intentionally manipulating the ethnic make-up of Member States, with the objective of replacing natives with immigrants.

Source: The so-called "Great Replacement Theory" is promoted by populist movements seeking to frame migration as a crisis and a threat to Europe for political gain.

#EURealityCheck

The EU collaborates with Member States to establish an effective, humanitarian, and safe migration policy.

This includes establishing lines of action, legislation, specific programmes, and mandates for negotiations with non-EU countries.

The “Great Replacement Theory” manipulates public perception by presenting cultural change as a threatening process.

The aim is to exploit fear and confusion surrounding migration policy.
