

REGULATORY INNOVATION & DISINFORMATION

WHAT DO YOUNG PEOPLE THINK?

in Portugal

Regulatory innovation is seen as a solution to strengthen societal resilience against disinformation, but to which extent?

... and could we effectively counter disinformation without regulatory intervention?

Confidence in recognising disinformation in daily life can vary...

... especially after attending a training like the Media Literacy Incubator, as 93%

said they will change their habits when looking for information, for example on regulatory innovation, after attending the event.
