FAKE NEWS

EU laws institutionalise censorship by forcing platforms to remove opinions and silence political dissent under the pretext of fighting disinformation.

Meta CEO Mark Zuckerberg and other critics of the Digital Services Act

Under the

DIGITAL

SERVICES ACT

platforms are required to remove and restrict content that is deemed illegal and provide explanations for their actions.

And users have the right to APPEAL.

The Act serves to make the internet safer by holding online services responsible for creating a digital space that respects citizens' and consumers' fundamental rights.
